

Take a look at www.

choice and medication

.org/nhs24

Information for people who use mental health services, carers and professionals

The NHS Lanarkshire recommended website for unbiased information about medication used in mental health settings.

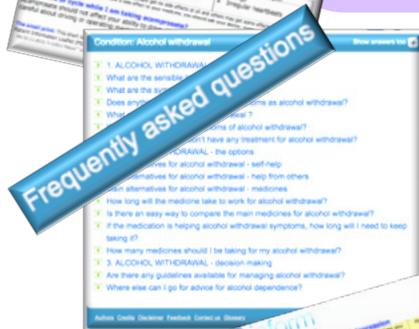

Access information and resources that can help people make informed decisions:

A large selection of leaflets available to download and print.

- PILL: standard leaflet
- QuILL: quick, easy to read, designed for young people
- BILL: basic information leaflet with no waffle
- BILL-XL: large print version
- VERA: very easy-read accessible leaflets suitable for patients with learning disabilities

Available in different languages

Answers to frequently asked questions on over 100 medicines

Answers to frequently asked questions on over 20 common mental health conditions

Information 'handy charts' that compare the benefits and risks of medicines, for example, antidepressants.

Also, fact sheets on:
medication and driving
how medicines work
pregnancy and perinatal information

And much more.....

Access Choice and Medication

- ❖ www.choiceandmedication.org/nhs24
- ❖ NHS Lanarkshire staff can access website via FirstPort
Link at bottom of home page under 'Public Websites'