What is Well Connected?

Well Connected is a programme in Lanarkshire, sometimes referred to as social prescribing or community referral. It makes it easier for us and people we know to take part in and benefit from activities and services that we know improve our well-being which means how we feel about ourselves and our lives. There are eight Well Connected areas available to us and we can benefit from more than one:

- Physical activity and leisure opportunities
- Volunteering
- Employment
- Arts and culture
- Benefits, welfare and debt advice
- Learning opportunities
- Healthy Reading and Self-help Information in Libraries
- Stress Control via the Calm Distress online programme

This booklet contains information on each of the eight Well Connected areas and how to easily access the opportunities.

Well Connected can help!!

Who is Well Connected for?

Well-being is about how we think and feel such as being confident, enjoying life, being able to cope with life's challenges. Many factors affect our well-being; housing, jobs, schools, relationships, where we live and money worries.

At times, we can all feel stressed, low in mood or worried. We may also have experiences that are difficult to cope with. Sometimes we don't feel good in ourselves and we don't know why.

Well Connected is for people who may be experiencing symptoms of stress and low mood, but it is also for people who want to feel better in themselves and in their life. As part of the Well Connected programme, staff working in the 8 areas have all participated in mental health and well-being awareness training.

What are the benefits of Well Connected?

Well Connected programmes have been shown to help people by:

- Improving self confidence and self-esteem
- Reducing low mood
- Reducing feelings of stress
- Helping people deal with some of the problems that are causing low well-being such as money worries, loneliness and unemployment
- Helping people develop positive ways of coping with the challenges of life
- Increasing opportunities for social contact
- Learning new and useful skills
- Improving community spirit
- Increasing the number of people taking part in arts, leisure, education, volunteering, sports and other activities

What Next?

Well Connected can be the starting point to help improve our mental health and well-being. This leaflet provides information that we and people who support us can use to help us access all the opportunities that are available. If you feel that you still need some support, in addition to the Well Connected programme, please make an appointment to see your GP.

If you would like further information on the Well Connected programme or general information on mental health and well-being contact the mental health information service for your area:

Self Help

Healthy Reading

Healthy
Reading

The Healthy Reading programme makes it easier to access mental health and well-being leaflets, books, CDs, DVDs, eBooks, eAudiobooks and web-based support. All libraries across Lanarkshire have resources to help us get the most from life such as living life to the full, sleeping better and becoming more confident and assertive.

Healthy Reading can help to overcome and cope with mental health problems such as anxiety, depression, stress, dementia and panic. There are resources for all ages including supporting young people, adults and older people as well as items on positive parenting. The programme has grown to include titles on long term illnesses, dementia, cancer and to support carers.

BorrowBox

With the BorrowBox service, you will be able to access both eBook and eAudiobooks directly on your device through the BorrowBox app. The app is free to download and you can sign-in using your library membership details. New titles are added every month so you will never be short of a book, even after closing time for our branch libraries. BorrowBox is accessible 24/7. To find out more about the service visit the e-library for your area: North Lanarkshire – <https://culturenl.co.uk/elibrary> or South Lanarkshire – www.slleisureandculture.co.uk/info/57/e-books

How do I borrow the resources?

There is no charge to borrow any Healthy Reading material. Your GP or other health or social care worker may suggest a particular item that would be helpful.

What if I am not a library member?

To join the library all you need to do is take two forms of identification to your nearest library, one with your name and address, another with your signature or, you can join online and borrow eBooks, eAudiobooks and eMagazines straight away.

- Join online North Lanarkshire:

Mind Matters

A new website for Lanarkshire puts high-quality mental health self-help at people's fingertips. Lanarkshire Mind Matters is a comprehensive website produced by NHS Lanarkshire's psychological services. It aims to link adults aged 18 and over to evidence-based mental health information, advice and help. This includes computerised cognitive behavioural therapy (cCBT), with quick access to self-referral courses including:

- Space for Resilience,
- Space for Sleep,
- Space from Stress and
- Space from Covid-19.

Lanarkshire
mind matters

There are links to self-help for problems including anxiety, depression and panic, as well as free online courses and information about how to maintain mental and physical wellbeing. Further resources are being developed.

The website will evolve as part of a wider move to provide accessible online services during the Covid-19 pandemic and beyond.

www.lanarkshiremindmatters.scot.nhs.uk

Calm Distress

Calm Distress is a new online course from NHS Lanarkshire Psychological Services, designed for you to use in your own time and at your own pace. It is all about understanding emotions and improving wellbeing, during Covid-19 and beyond.

The pandemic means NHS staff can't run classes or groups in the community like we used to – but we can provide high quality psychological help online via our Lanarkshire Mind Matters website.

Over five friendly sessions, Calm Distress will help you open up to day-to-day stress, recognise your warning signs, and learn new ways to cope with difficult thoughts and feelings. Each Calm Distress video is about 20 minutes long, giving you lots of useful information in the time it takes to drink a cup of tea. There are also booklets to go alongside the videos, which you can download and dip into if you wish: do it how you feel it works for you.

You can access Calm Distress through Lanarkshire Mind Matters online: www.lanarkshiremindmatters.scot.nhs.uk/calm-distress-online-course-overview/

Register online and we will send you a password to access the course. You can then keep coming back to it as often as you like.

Silvercloud

SilverCloud provides private and secure access anywhere, anytime to evidence-based, online programs that will help to teach you techniques that helps you reduce symptoms of stress, anxiety, low mood or depression. Based on cognitive behavioural therapy, mindfulness and positive psychology SilverCloud is very interactive and very flexible. The program can be run on a PC or laptop. It can also be used on your mobile phone or tablet device so that you always have access to it.

How will it help me?

SilverCloud will help you to pinpoint and change unhelpful ways of thinking that can affect how you feel while teaching you more effective ways of solving problems.

What is CBT?

CBT is a psychological therapy that works on the relationships between thoughts (cognitions), behaviours and feelings. CBT teaches the individual how to recognise and tackle problems here and now, rather than in the past. It has been widely studied and has been proven to work especially on depression and anxiety.

How to use Silver Cloud?

We recommend you use SilverCloud 40 minutes per week, over 6–8 weeks at a regular time if you can about 3 or 4 times a week about 10–15 minutes when you have time to yourself for example on your lunch breaks, on the bus home, in the evening, when the kids are in bed. As with most things, it may take time and practice to make progress.

Why Use it?

SilverCloud programs have demonstrated high improvement rates for stress, anxiety and depression. You set your own pace, it is not time consuming, and you don't have to stick to rigid appointments. Visit: www.lanarkshiremindmatters.scot.nhs.uk/silvercloud-online-therapy/

NHS Inform

Finding the right health and care information can make a real difference to how people manage their wellbeing. Making information accessible, quality assured and up to date helps people to make positive choices.

NHS inform is Scotland's dedicated resource offering up-to-date facts on health, services and campaigns. It also has a wealth of information available online, over the telephone or via webchat:

- tests and treatments
- illnesses and conditions
- injuries
- healthy living (including stopping smoking, screening and keeping active)
- care, support and health rights

One of the many great features of the new website is that people can personalise the information that's relevant to them using the 'Info for Me' tool. People can also interact and find out about specific conditions in community forums using the 'Health Unlocked' facility. Of course, there is always the option to talk to the health information team by telephone or using webchat.

Occupational Therapy Community Clinic

Community Clinics are a mental health Occupational Therapy initiative which connects you with local services and activities that may help you to improve your mental health and well-being. Feeling good about yourself and being able to get on with your life in the way that you want are central components of well-being and will be different for each individual. Community Clinics provide you with an opportunity to discuss your individual needs and interests with an Occupational Therapist through being offered a one off appointment at a clinic in your local area. We will support you to access local services and activities that you may benefit from.

Advice also includes:

- Ways to maintain positive mental health through taking part in valued activity
- How to achieve balance within roles and routines
- How to recognise early signs of deteriorating mental health and manage them
- How to make changes to lifestyle and behaviour
- Relevant community resources and organisations that may benefit the individual, based on their own interests

Occupational Therapy Community Clinics are delivered on a monthly basis – appointments can be by phone, online or in person. Contact your local Occupational Therapy Community Clinic to ask for an appointment on the following numbers:

Mindfulness

Mindfulness with Ten for Zen

Mindfulness is being aware of what's happening in the present moment both within your body and around you. Living in the moment is widely understood to help you develop peace of mind and true happiness. When we practise mindfulness we can calm our mind and this allows us to see more clearly what brings us happiness and what causes us suffering. With this awareness, we can take positive choices to help create peace of mind and well-being both for ourselves and those around us.

TEN FOR ZEN

Details of our upcoming free mindfulness events can be found at www.tenforzen.co.uk/free-events.

We also have a number of articles with hints and tips on living mindfully at www.tenforzen.co.uk/blog. Please like our Facebook page on www.facebook.com/tenforzenscotland for more details on mindfulness.

Making Life Easier (North Lanarkshire only)

Making life easier is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Who can use it?

Anyone can use this service if they live in North Lanarkshire. Anyone can use this service on behalf of someone who lives in North Lanarkshire. Whilst the service is mainly about adults, some of the information may be useful for young people.

What's it about?

If you or someone you live with or help look after or care about is having difficulties with the everyday activities they need or want to do this service is for you.

What does it offer?

Information

You can get information on local self help groups and national organisations which offer support to people who live with long term conditions or a disability or are finding things difficult as they get older. Some of the information is about long term conditions and disabilities; some is about keeping safe and well at home; some is about being able to get out and about in your local community.

Advice

You can get advice on a range of everyday topics from professional staff who provide hints and tips on how to carry out everyday activities independently.

Access to services

You can get direct access to services if you carry out the guided self assessment option. You can do this for yourself or someone can do this on your behalf. The person who is helping you doesn't even need to live in North Lanarkshire.

At the moment you can get access to a broad range of equipment and minor adaptations to your home if these are matched for you in a guided self assessment.

We are developing the service so that people will be able to access a broader range of services and support.

For more information go to www.makinglifeeasier.org.uk

If you want to know more or want help to use the service contact one of our disability information officers on 01698 274 418

Working Health Services Scotland

Working Health Services Scotland supports people to stay in work or return to work when they develop a health condition or impairment. WHSS helps employees at Small-to-Medium-sized Enterprises (SMEs) with less than 250 employees.

Working Health Services Scotland will assist the individual to better understand and manage their health condition. This includes individuals who present with mild-to-moderate health conditions, experiencing a level of stress or anxiety that they are struggling to cope with, or for individuals who have issues with pain, etc. Interventions may include access to physiotherapy, occupational therapy, counselling and occupational health and safety support.

WHSS will provide personalised and timely back-to-work support. This covers health, employability and wider social support services. Cases are managed over the telephone. Assessments will identify health issues and help clients to access the most appropriate forms of support as soon as possible.

Financial Inclusion Team

Before Covid-19, North Lanarkshire Council already had a First Point of Contact service to deal with all telephone enquiries, online enquiries and referrals about benefit and debt advice. This service will keep delivering confidential advice and support, even when we return to meeting service users face to face.

Contact the Financial Inclusion Team directly.
